

Shakespeare
ON SCREEN

Shakespeare on Screen Screening + Reception

Film London invites you to a preview screening of

Shakespeare on Screen

A showcase of brand new commissions marking 400 years since the death of Shakespeare

Thursday 21 April, 18.30
Curzon Soho

99 Shaftesbury Avenue
London W1D 5DY

The screening will be followed by an informal reception from 20.30

Please RSVP to rsvp@filmlondon.org.uk by midday Tuesday 19 April

The programme comprises

- Five short experimental animated films produced by London-based animators through Film London's Still Shakespeare scheme, in partnership with the London Shakespeare Centre at King's College London and animation companies Film Club at Th1ng and Sherbet
- Two short films produced through Film London's Shakespeare's Sister scheme, in partnership with the British Council, designed to champion female filmmaking talent
- Arena: All the World's a Screen: Shakespeare on Film - a BBC Arena and Film London essay documentary exploring Shakespeare on screen from Welles' masterpieces to Bollywood and even outer space

SHAKESPEARE400